

JOB POSTING

Job Opening Date: March 1, 2017	Job Closing Date: When position is filled
Job Title: Terminal Manager	Department: LB212
Job Location: Long Beach	Contact: Robert Waterman

Qualifications & Skills Required

- Oversee, define and implement the direction of all plant maintenance activities to include job planning and maintenance
- Oversee, define, communicate, conduct and implement the direction of all environmental compliance activities to include training, planning and maintenance
- Oversee design of new building sites, plans, specifications, and structural developments at various locations
- Enhance productivity during periods of equipment downtime or repair, unexpected priority changes and conflicting demands
- Oversee, define, communicate, conduct and implement the direction of all environmental compliance activities to include training, planning and maintenance
- Operate the wastewater treatment system at the Company's dry bulk facility
- Enforce policies for safety within the Bulk dock operations department
- Coordinate, review, and supervise the activities of union personnel
- Oversees scheduling for ship arrivals
- Communicates with agents, brokers or customers via telephones or fax concerning vessel operations or contractual needs
- Reviews night superintendent's paperwork and mechanical repairs
- Oversees daily operation of ships loading and clean ups
- Ensures company compliance with all government environmental regulations
- Maintains detailed records of operation, inspections, maintenance, repairs, training, and related activities as they pertain to environmental compliance
- Travels to various Company facilities, wherever located and when and as necessary
- Participates in and/or monitors both scheduled and unscheduled regulatory agency site inspections and reviews
- Assures the safety of the general longshore work force and steady employees
- Acts as Project Manager on Special assigned and corporate projects
- Valid Driver's license

Education and/or Work Experience

- Graduation from a 4-year accredited college or university with a Bachelor's Degree in Engineering or Maritime related degree
- Computer literate with working knowledge of spreadsheet software and/or word-processing software
- Knowledge of maritime industry to include mechanical and electrical operations
- Knowledge of bulk ship loading/unloading or rail car operations and equipment is preferred
- Knowledge of federal, state and local air regulations, Clean Air and Water Act, California EPA, FIP as well as emissions quantification techniques
- Previous work experience in a supervisory capacity as engineer or plant engineer preferred
- Experience working in stevedore/maritime or related industry helpful